

KASARGOD, KERALA

Kasargod –Kerala’s northernmost district, flanked by the Western Ghats to the east and the Arabian Sea to the west, is a fertile region of thickly forested hills and meandering rivers. In this picturesque setting you will find a hidden tropical destination set in a secluded palm grove beside the Arabian Sea – Neeleshwar Hermitage. The luxurious resort breathes tranquillity and offers an essence of authentic India – the traditional wood-and-thatch architecture, balanced with stylish contemporary touches and familiar modern comforts. The site overlooks a gloriously unspoiled beach of sand, stretching as far as the eye can see. Unobtrusive individual service and meticulous attention to detail are everywhere in this luxury resort, turning your holiday into an effortless opportunity to enjoy a world where time stands still.

- Accommodation – Modelled after traditional fishermen’s huts, all cottages are either garden or sea facing.
- Eco-friendly – Neeleshwar Hermitage strives to create an eco-friendly environment. To this effect they employ a ‘no plastic policy’ and therefore do not use bottled water. All drinking water is purified on site by the most up-to-date Reverse Osmosis method. All kitchen-waste is recycled to provide bio-gas for rubbish incineration; in turn all burnable waste is incinerated on site. Gardens are kept free of artificial fertilizers and all garden waste is recycled to make mature compost. Not only that, the site has been landscaped to encourage butterflies and a wide range of local and migratory birds.
- Ayurveda –Make the most of your stay and treat yourself to some genuine Ayurvedic treatments practised in the traditional way. Consult the in-house Ayurvedic doctor for holistic therapies and activities; all treatments are tailored to individual mind-body type.
- Spa – For those with a taste for the western treatments, there is a full-fledged spa to help you feel rested and rejuvenated.
- Yoga & Meditation – Journey within through Yoga and Meditation. Learn to quiet your mind, relax and embrace the silence under the tutelage of the in-house expert.
