

AMRITARA THE POOVATH BEACH FRONT HERITAGE FORT KOCHI, KERALA

Fort Kochi also known as ‘Queen of Arabian Sea’ is a laid back coastal town with a colonial past. Vestiges of Portuguese, Dutch and British colonialism lie scattered apart from the religious influences like synagogues, churches and so on. But long before them, the Arabs and the Chinese and even the Greeks traded with Kochi. So, it is aptly said to be the cultural crossroads.

Relive the glorious past at The Poovath Beach Front Heritage, a renovated Colonial building with EVC station from the colonial era. It stands by bewitching Arabian Sea in Fort Kochi on the South-west coast in India. Amritara The Poovath Beachfront Heritage offers comfortable and well-appointed rooms to ensure a delightful stay.

- Accommodation – The rooms feature wooden flooring, air conditioning, and large windows with stunning views of the sea or garden with the blend of heritage culture. Each room is equipped with a minibar and ensuite facilities. The room sizes from 19m² to 28m².
- Heritage Walk – Enjoy a guided Heritage walk of Fort Kochi with our expert guides. Walk through Fort Kochi gives you the glimpse of History and Heritage, showcasing the mixed Dutch, Portuguese, British and Jewish influences making the city unique.
